THE PATHWAY

Movement first.
Craft second.
Community always.

A clear progression from age three through college tennis. Same coaches. Same standard. The path is the same; the work meets you where you are.

LEVEL	AGES	WHERE IT LEADS
Little Tennis Stars	3–4	First racquet, first rally
Red Ball	5–6	Coordination + first match play
Orange Ball	7–8	Scoring, footwork, first tournament
Green Dot	9–11	Phase Play · UTR 1.0–3.0
Junior Development	11–18	UTR 1–7 · USTA Level 6/5
High Performance	12–17	UTR 8+ · Section / National events

MOVEMENT. CRAFT. COMMUNITY.

Tennis,
as it should be taught.

Movement. Craft. Community.

WHO YOU'RE TRAINING WITH

A fourth-generation tennis family. Three coaches. One standard.

Andrew Mateljan was introduced to the game by his grandfather Steve at Ford Park in Redlands and has spent twenty years on tour and on court since. He coaches Karue Sell (ATP #258 — took him from #860 to #258 in 2025). Colton Smith (#133), Max McKennon (#458), and Ryan Seggerman (#63 in doubles) all came through the same training. Alex Michelsen came through the program at ages 12–13 — now ATP #30.
